

A screenshot of the Azure DevOps web interface showing the Pipelines section. The browser address bar displays `https://dev.azure.com/nethrasreelogu/Dotnet/_build`. The left sidebar contains navigation links: Dotnet, Overview, Boards, Repos, Pipelines (selected), Environments, Library, Test Plans, Artifacts, and Project settings. The main content area is titled "Pipelines" and includes a "New pipeline" button and a "Filter pipelines" dropdown. Below this, the "Recent" tab is active, showing a table of recently run pipelines.
